

Bob Usry has over 25 years experience as an educator and business development specialist. He is a retired Extension Marketing Specialist for NCSU. He has responsibilities with NC Cooperative Extension Service for assisting Cooperatives. He has extensive work on creating applied education and education material for cooperatives and for youth. He has been instrumental in formation of the American Prawn Cooperative Mr. Usry works directly with groups of producers fielding their development questions. He brings his vast experience to any client with an extensive knowledge of value added enterprise development. He has been a reviewer of the VAPG for numerous years and assisted producers with grant developments.

Bob Usry's Education includes a MS in Agricultural Economics from North Carolina State University